DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 18, 21, 23, and 26 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 04/08/2009.

Claims 17, 19, 20, 22, 24, 25, and 28-30 stand.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 20, 22, 24, and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Galbrierz et al. (5,845,776) which discloses in Figures 1-14 the invention as claimed:

In re claim 20: a package comprising a carton 1 and bottles B; bottom end closure 9; top closure 7; said top closure being formed of foldable sheet material as disclosed in col. 6, line 25-54; article-retaining arrangement including a plurality of apertures 15; said each aperture having a frangible connection 73, 75, 81, 83, 85 extending to another one of said apertures as disclosed in fig 6; said frangible connection being arranged such that structural integrity of the carton is substantially maintained upon breaking of said frangible connection as disclosed in col. 7, line 36, line 20-41.

in re claim 22: said plurality of apertures are arranged in rows, each aperture of a row having a frangible connection extending to one of said apertures of a different row figs 1, 6.

in re claim 24: wherein each aperture at an end of a row is connected to an edge of said top closure by a further frangible connection figs 1, 6.

in re claim 25: a frangible connection between two of said apertures intersects a frangible connection between two other ones of said apertures
figs 1, 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 17, 19, and 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mardon (GB406511) in view of Huspeka et al. (5,699,959). Mardon discloses in figures 1-5:

In re claims 17 and 28 (both): Mardon discloses a two part carton and a blank in figs 1-5; an open top container (or first part) 1; a separate top closure (or second part) 4; a pair of opposed side walls and a pair of opposed end walls fig 1; top flap 2' hingedly connected to an uppermost edge 2 of said one wall in fig 2; said top flap is folded downwardly with respect to said uppermost edge to extend into said open top container figs 2, 4; top panel, said top closure engages with said top closure such that said top closure is locked in a recessed position below said uppermost edge of said open top container as disclosed on page 2, left column, line 57-65.

Art Unit: 3728

Mardon discloses the invention as discussed above for claims 17 and 28, with the exception of the following claimed limitations that are taught by Huspeka in figures 1-8.

In re claims 17, and 28 (both): Huspeka discloses an engaging tab, inner portion of 48 in fig 8; pair of inner and outer handle panels, inner and outer panels of 14 in fig 9; panels hingedly connected at upper edge 50; inner panel is disposed along an inside surface of an end wall in fig 9, while outer panel is disposed along an outside surface of an end wall in fig 9.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Mardon as discussed above, and further in view of Huspeka, in order to provide a top that is removable and re-attachable with multiple panels to improve upon the strength of the device, as taught by Huspeka on col. 1, line 9-18 and fig 9.

In re claim 19: Huspeka further discloses that said engaging tab extends upwardly from a top panel 44 and engages an outside surface of a top flap as shown in
figs 8, 9

In re claim 29: Huspeka further discloses a multi-ply handle structure in fig 9

In re claim 30: Huspeka further discloses three piles in fig 9

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to further modify Mardon and further in view of Huspeka, for the reasons discussed above for claims 17 and 28.

3. Claims 31 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mardon in view of Huspeka as applied to claims 28 and 30 above, and further in view of Depper (4,981,254). Mardon in view of Huspeka teaches the claimed invention as discussed above, with the exception of the following claimed limitation that is taught by Depper in figures 1-6:

In re claims 31 and 32 (both): Depper discloses an inner handle panel 60, outer handle panel 54, and an end wall 68 are each provided with apertures 90, 92, 98

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Mardon in view of Huspeka as discussed above, and further in view of Depper, in order to improve upon the strength of the device and handle by providing multiple panels that align with apertures, as taught by Depper on col. 4, ll. 31-44 and figs 1-6.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
